FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Destin, Fl. (December 1, 2009) – Bask in the beauty of the impeccably decorated setting of Grace Lutheran Church and celebrate the holiday season on December 19 with Sinfonia’s annual holiday performance.

Join Sinfonia for a festive presentation of your favorite holiday melodies and help celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the enchanting music made popular by Mannheim Steamroller, performed by the orchestra. As a special treat, the Canterbury Brass has been added to the concert lineup. Renowned for its polished sound and virtuosic style, the Canterbury Brass have been setting standards in brass chamber music for nearly 15 years. Ever since their first International tour, during the summer of 1996, the Canterbury Brass have continued to receive rave reviews from critics and audiences alike for their concerts and master classes throughout the United States and abroad.

The performance begins at 7:30pm and tickets are $37.50 for preferred floor seating and $25 for balcony seating. Patrons may still purchase the remaining season’s concerts, including the March Gala event featuring Pink Martini for $125, which is an $85 savings over single ticket pricing.

Presenting Sponsor for the holiday concert is Destin Commons and Presenting Media Sponsor is Emerald Coast Magazine. Sinfonia’s 2009-2010 is brought to you by Regus Grand Boulevard.

Purchase and print your tickets from the convenience of your home or office at www.SinfoniaGulfCoast.org or call the box office at 850-269-7129. Sinfonia Gulf Coast...your symphony experience redefined.
